ARRESTED FOR FAILING TO KILL HIMSELF.—Eugene Dwyer, twenty-five years old, was arrested yesterday by order of Captain Killilea because of an attempt to commit suicide by taking Paris Green. He lived with his parents, at No. 429 West 50th-st.

MISS ELIZA WEATHERS'S CONDITION.—Miss Eliza Weathers, who has been for some time confined to her rooms at the Albemarle by illness, was yesterday quite well. There has been no change for the better in her condition for several days.

IDENTIFYING A BODY FOUND IN THE HARBOR.—The body found in the Harlem River on Tuesday has been identified as that of Richard Randall, of Rockland, Maine, by Henry T. Fyfe, for whom the man worked. Randall fell overboard on March 5, while at work upon a floating derrick at One-hundred-and-twenty-seventh-st.

EXHIBITION OF A RELIC OF THE TRUE CROSS.—The feast of the Invention of the Cross was celebrated yesterday at the Church of the Holy Cross, in West Forty-second-st. Inclosed in a white silk canopy, surrounded with lights and flowers, and exposed on the altar, was what was said to be a relic of the cross.

RESULT OF A SUNDAY GUNFIRE.—During a quarrel in the store No. 701 First-ave., Dennis Murphy of No. 230 East Twenty-fourth-st. was shot by Thomas Murphy of No. 235 East Thirty-first-st. The latter was arrested and taken to Bellevue Hospital. Murphy was arrested.

THE ILLNESS OF DR. MOFF.—There was no appreciable change in the condition of Dr. A. Randolph Moff, resident physician at the Riverside Hospital, yesterday. Dr. Moff said: "To-morrow will be the fourteenth day which is considered the crisis in typhoid fever cases. My patient is delirious but we do not consider his case unusually serious. His health had been impaired by overwork, and the Board of Health granted him a vacation. He had made arrangements to sail for Europe last Saturday."

MRS. THORP'S ASSAULT RELEASED ON BAIL.—George S. Walsh, who shot Mrs. Laura N. Thorp, on March 28 and has since been confined in the Jefferson Hotel, was yesterday admitted to bail for $3,000. Dr. Joseph W. Home, of No. 28 West Twenty-fourth-st., sent a letter to Justice White stating that Mrs. Thorp was out of danger. Walsh's counsel said that the bail should be small, as the charge against Walsh was only felonious assault. Walsh bondsman is Hugh Lockey, a broker, of No. 107 Waverly Place.

HIT BY A CAR.—On Saturday afternoon two young ruffians attacked a small boy in front of the house of Abraham Trzaski, No. 428 West Fifty-third-st. Although Mr. Trzaski is over eighty years old, he went to the rescue of the boy. The ruffians, when the younger one, a pedler, eighteen years of age, named Charles Stricker, threw a stone at him, hitting him on the head. Frank Kalsch, age nineteen, of No. 727 Tenth-ave., struck Mr. Trzaski several times in the face. The assaults were held for trial yesterday in the Yorkville Police Court.

TWO PERSONS DEMAND RECOMPENSE.—About 200 Italians gathered at the Tombs Police Court yesterday to obtain satisfaction against Antonio Mora, of No. 404 Chicago-st. On April 29, Antonio Mora, of No. 404 Chicago-st., and his wife, Maria, were taken to the Tombs by the police, and were held for several days. They were released on bail, and were going to fulfill his promise. He angrily ordered them away, telling them that he would do nothing for them. At the Tombs Court yesterday, the defendant, Mora, made a complaint on which Mora was committed in default of $1,000 bail.

SENT TO AN ASYLUM BY HIS WIFE.—Thomas F. Durant was committed to the City Prison by Justice Murray, in the Yorkville Police Court yesterday, as an habitual drunkard. He will be removed to the Fort Hamilton Reformatory. Charles W. Durant, of No. 31 East Fifty-seventh-st., a brother of No. 28 Nassau-st., and Frederick C. Durant, of No. 117 East Fifty-seventh-st., a suitor of Mrs. Durant, were also present. The case was started at a hearing in East Fifty-eighth-st., which was a success to the extent, it is said, of $30,000, but he took to drink and the academy was sold.

BROOKLYN.—The first anniversary of the Grace English Lutheran Church occurred yesterday, when appropriate services were held in the hall at Broadway and E. street.

Jeremiah Moran, of No. 229 Hoyt-st., reported to the police that he was robbed of a gold watch, worth $100, at an early hour yesterday, at Dougherty-st. The fancy goods store of Mrs. Emma J. Davis, at No. 507 Fulton-st., was entered by thieves yesterday morning and paravols, umbrellas, and other goods, worth $113, were stolen. Evidence was effected by breaking the window.

The salary of the Rev. Dr. E. P. Terhune, the new pastor of the Bedford Avenue Reformed Church, will be $6,000. He and his wife, "Marion Harland," will come from Springfield, Mass., this month.

Frank R. Campbell, the local agent for the sale of Chicago-bred beef, went into Mackay's oyster saloon in Groves-st. on Saturday night with a friend, and disputed over the payment of his bill. He drank beer to the tune of five dollars and a dish, John Connolly, the cook, went to his employer's assistance, but he was knocked over a table, and under a heap of broken dishes and furniture. He was taken to the hospital, and a doctor was called. He was finally arrested.

NEWARK.

The Salvation Army occupies an old hat factory in Beaver-st., near Market-st., and for several weeks have held meetings there. The army has been very successful in its work, and has attracted much of the boys who met in large crowds and blocked up the narrow street while they greatly annoyed the neighbors by their attempts to out-vill the evangelical soldiers. The army started singing parades yesterday and were followed by a great crowd of shouting boys. In the evening a policeman told the leader of the parade to stop singing. He refused to do so and was taken to Police Headquarters, arraigned before Justice Hood. Subsequently Samuel Kayner, the captain of the Newark Branch, was arrested for breach of the peace on a charge preferred by Augustus E. Spauld. He was bailed to appear this morning.

The contract of the city with the gas companies having two years to run, it is proposed by the companies to enter into a new arrangement whereby the price of gas shall be reduced one-fifth and the companies pay a royalty to the city of ten cents on every 1,000 feet supplied. The contract now in force provides for a return that a new contract shall be made for supplying the public lamps at the rate of $1.85 per 1,000 feet, and that the city shall protect the companies from the unjust competition of a new company occupying the densely populated section only and neglecting the sparsely settled section.

SUNDAY NEW-JERSEY TOWNS.—Charles Stendering was nominated by the Republican of the Fifteenth Ward on Saturday night to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alderman McKinnon.

THE AUTOPEY ON THE BODY OF CHARLES MORINI.—The autopsy on the body of Charles Morini, who was found dead in bed Friday morning, showed that he died of pneumonia. Mrs. Jean Baptiste, his housekeeper, whose husband was serving a three months' term on Blackwell's Island, informed the police that her husband, Morini, in a rage, assaulted Morini, but no marks of violence could be found on the body.

EDWARD WILSON, a well-known New-York confidence man, who was arrested by Chief Donovan on Saturday, was sent to the penitentiary for three months as a disorderly prisoner. Recorder McDonough sentenced the prisoner, and then, in the absence of a policeman, started to take the prisoner to the penitentiary himself.
